

WHO ARE WE?

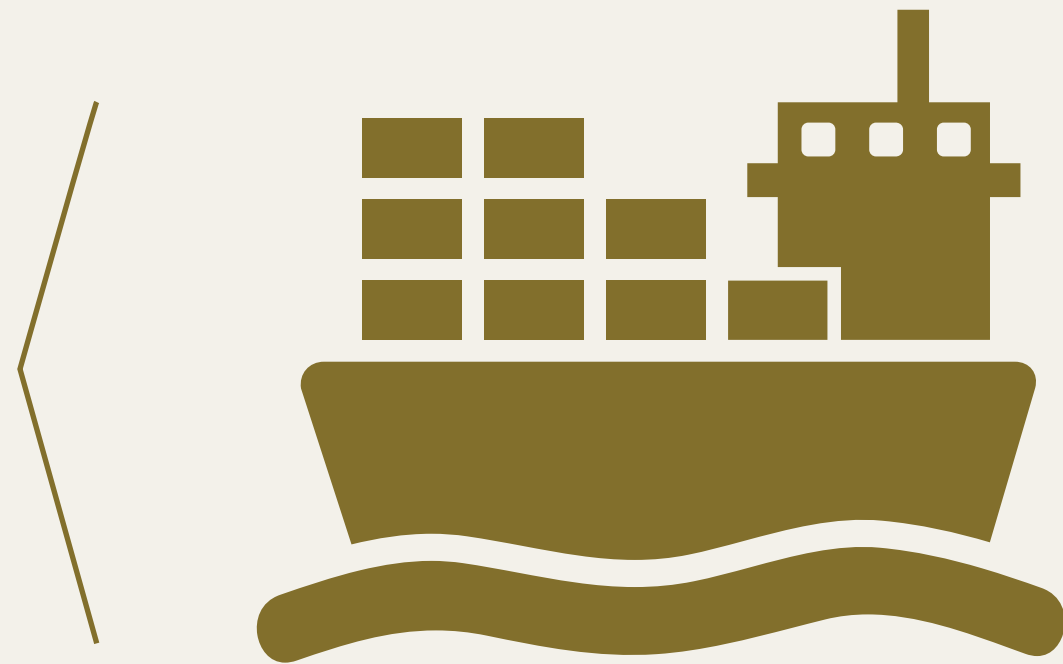

We are engaged in import and export of high quality gourmet products because we are passionate about bringing the best flavors and experiences to the lovers of the authentic flavors, be a bridge between cultures.

WHERE DO WE COME FROM?

On May 30, 2013 Gourpass was born, a company formed by four partners with the intention to start importing Canadian craft beer to Europe that had never come before.

OCTOBER 2013

The first container of craft beer from Ontario and Quebec set sail from the Port of Montreal to Valencia.

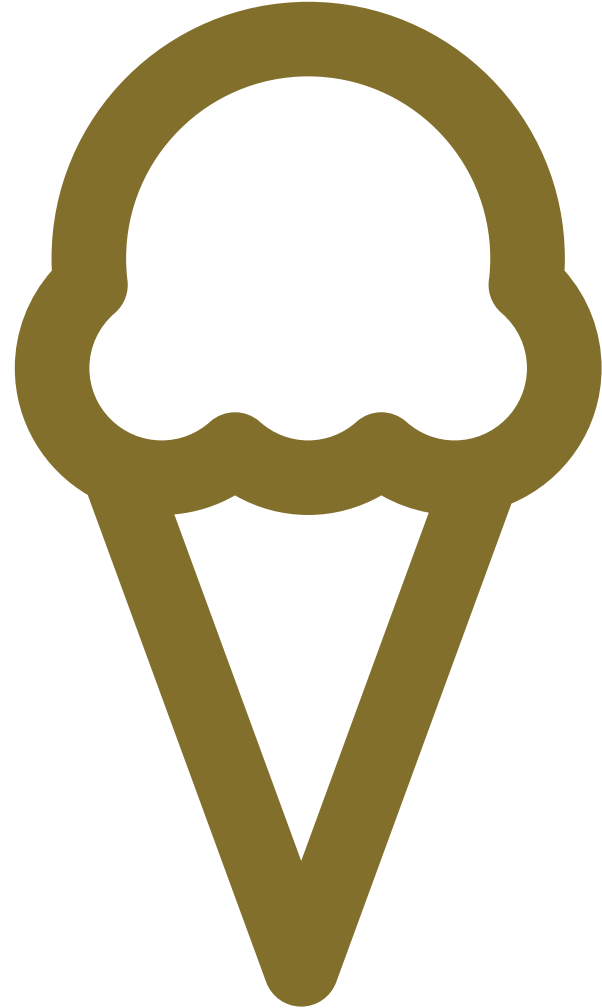

JULY 2014

We began importing exclusively in the Spanish market Mikeller's beer.

MARCH 2015

We duplicated the volume of our containers from 20" to 40".

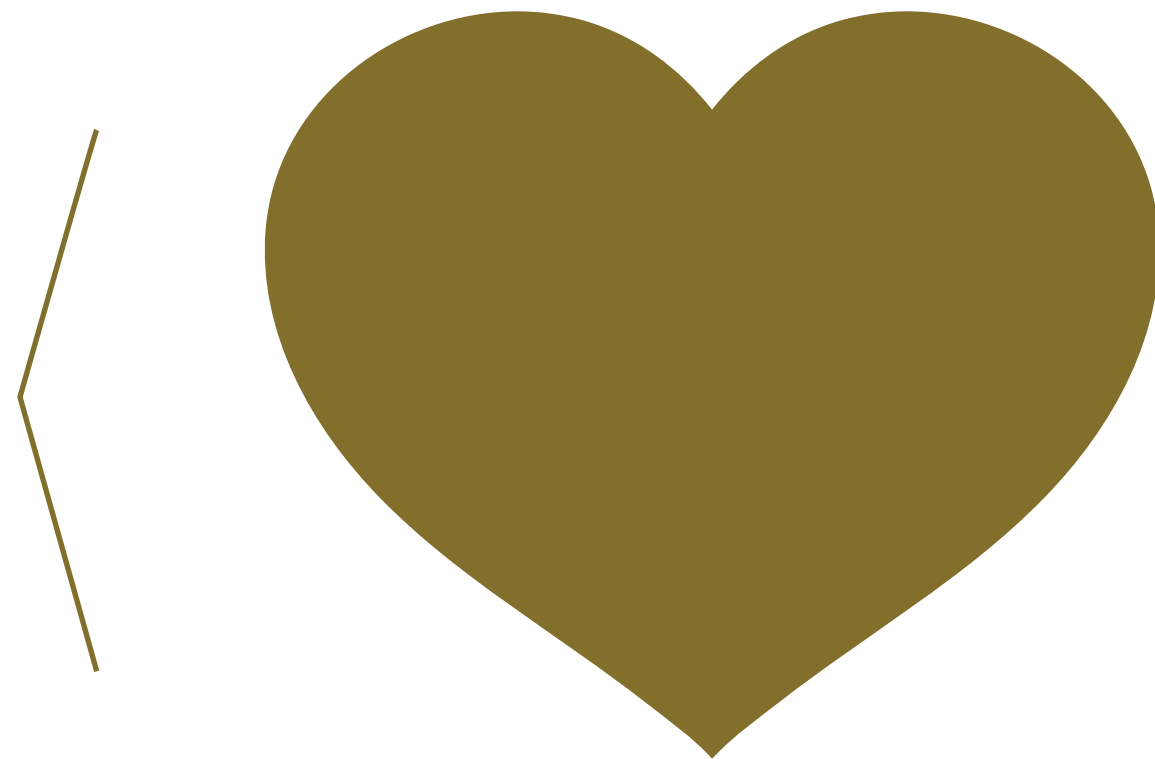

JULY 2015

We began to import reefer containers (refrigerated containers).

SEPTEMBER 2015

We imported for the first time gluten-free beers.

WE LOVE IT

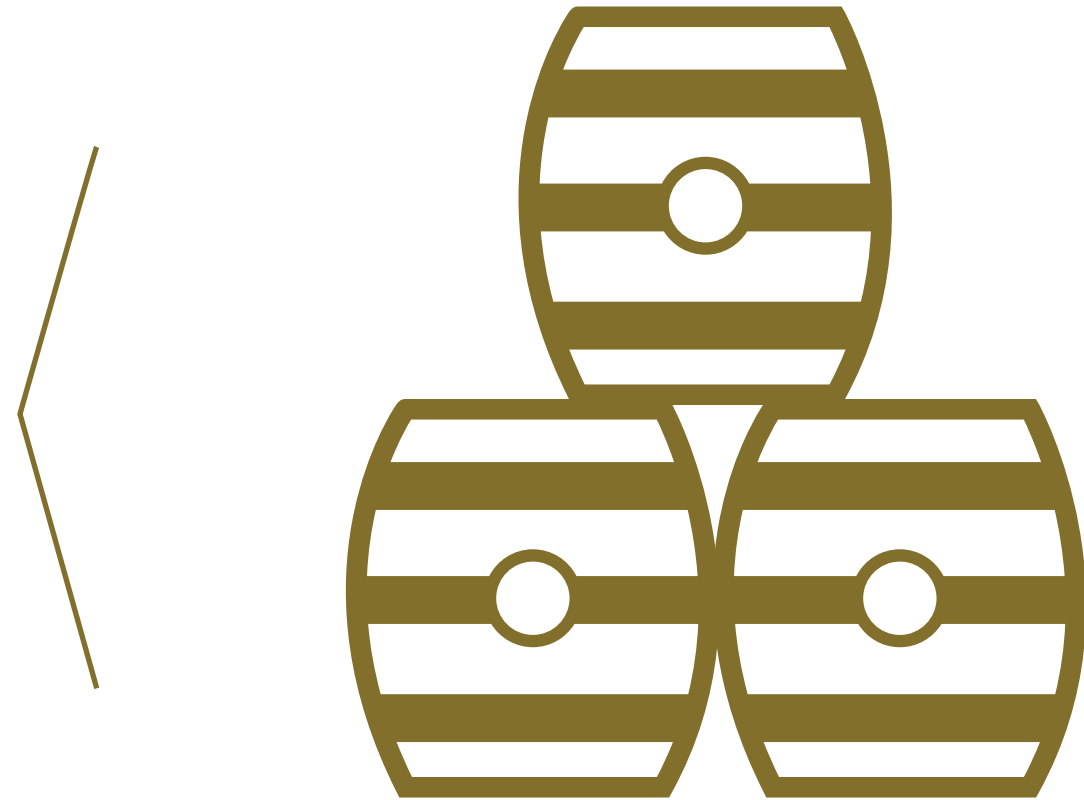

We have approached more than 1000 beer brands, more than 2,500 hl for our beer lovers. We have distribution networks in more than 7 countries. Anyway, these are just figures. We like to take care of our products which have been developed with such a dedication in order to arrive in optimal conditions .

WHERE ARE WE GOING?

We will continue to take care of our products on their way to the most discerning palates. We will continue to incorporate new products aiming to surprise and delight you through your senses.

We will continue to make you enjoy unique experiences such as tap takeovers, tastings, international exhibitions but also during festivals.

Anyway, we will continue loving our work because we love the crafty way.
